SPOKANE, WASH.

Shadle Park High School, after three years of hard work and effort on the part of all of the students, reached its peak in 1959-1960 in activities, sports, scholastics, leadership, and finally this annual, the Sporrán. In this book were placed memories of events, either joyous or sad, which every Highlander in the school experienced — the clubs, numerous activities and dances, the leaders of school organizations, debate and newspaper awards, and victories and defeats in the field of sports.

Now, we, the annual staff, wish to dedicate this yearbook to the first class ever to be graduated from Shadle Park, the Class of '60, and to Mr. William Taylor, the principal who has played such a great and important role in the shaping of one of the most outstanding and beautiful schools ever to be built in Spokane.

Though the seniors were faced with many difficult tasks, they became highly capable school leaders. Many able students came forward to help begin and carry out the jobs of introducing and setting the traditions vital for school spirit and of forming the numerous clubs and activities. The annual staff, composed entirely of seniors, spent long hours laboring over the many pages of the Sporrán so that the students would be proud of this, their first official annual.

For many highlanders, Shadle has been a paradise for three or more years. It has been a place containing many wonderful and beautiful memories and experiences that will never be forgotten, or, for that matter, will never want to be forgotten.

Because the seniors have left this "paradise" and are now out on their own, we chose as the theme of the Sporrán, "Special Island." When the hardships of the world are experienced, a place is visualized by the individual, a place where the worries and troubles of the world are forgotten and where only the good and beautiful exist.

As pages of the Sporrán are turned, we hope the daydreams and memories of the reader will be kept alive by the pictures and scenes of this school that will live on forever as a "Special Island."

MR. WILLIAM W. TAYLOR

principal's message . . .

This annual, our first one as a full-fledged high school, is the story in pictures and words of our school life in the Shadle Park High School.

On June 2, 1960, our first class was graduated. This class furnished most of the leadership of our school in its formative years.

Congratulations to the Class of 1960. You have done well in the fields of scholarship, athletics, drama, journalism, debate, art and music. You have set high standards of accomplishments and conduct as an example to the classes that will follow you. In the future you will look back with pride to your accomplishments in high school.

You will remember the days of our first wins on the athletic field, the first time our band was in uniform, our first debate, the first dance, the first school play, the first school songs and yells, the first ASB meetings and many other firsts. This Sporrán will help you relive these memories.

Shadle Park now joins the ranks of other thousands of American high schools who are dedicated to producing "healthy, self-supporting, socially conscious, morally upright, and rationally behaving young men and women, who as homemakers, workers, and as citizens of their school, community, state, nation and the world are able and willing to defend, maintain and improve our American way of life."

Shadle High,
to You We Sing.
All the Hills With Praises Ring.

As Our Hearts Proclaim Our Love for You
With Faith and Courage True

Our Colors Fly!

Highlanders, Both Young and Old,
Have a Spirit Brave and Bold

Friends We Love and Foes Defy

Wave the Green and Gold for Shadle High!

administration

Lowry Bennett

Dr. C. D. Babcock

The vice principal, Mr. Lowry Bennett, acts in the field of student control, attendance and scheduling.

Dr. C. D. Babcock, the former assistant principal, accepted a professorship at Lewis and Clark college in Oregon and was replaced by Mr. Walter Anker, who works in the field of curriculum. He is also coordinator of guidance and of teacher supervision.

Walter Anker

Harry Finnegan

Mr. Harry Finnegan, the dean of boys, is boys adviser and is in charge of student activities, while the dean of girls, Miss Helen Cleveland, counsels and coordinates girls' activities.

Helen Cleveland

Clerical work is done by a competent staff of women. Mrs. Mabel Swanson, Mr. Taylor's secretary, handles all of the college applications and grade transcripts. The bookkeeper, Mrs. Adeline Zeller, handles the records for school and district financial accounts while the attendance records are kept by the attendance clerk, Mrs. Mildred Glidden. Mrs. Rozella Noonan, as guidance clerk, records test scores, takes care of the guidance records and helps with college transcripts. Mrs. Marion Myers is in charge of the bookroom.

custodians and cooks

Of great importance to the beauty of the school are the custodians who work night and day cleaning the halls, rooms and many windows of Shadle.

Equally important are the cooks. Headed by Mrs. Grace Little, they prepare the well-balanced lunches which are served to the students.

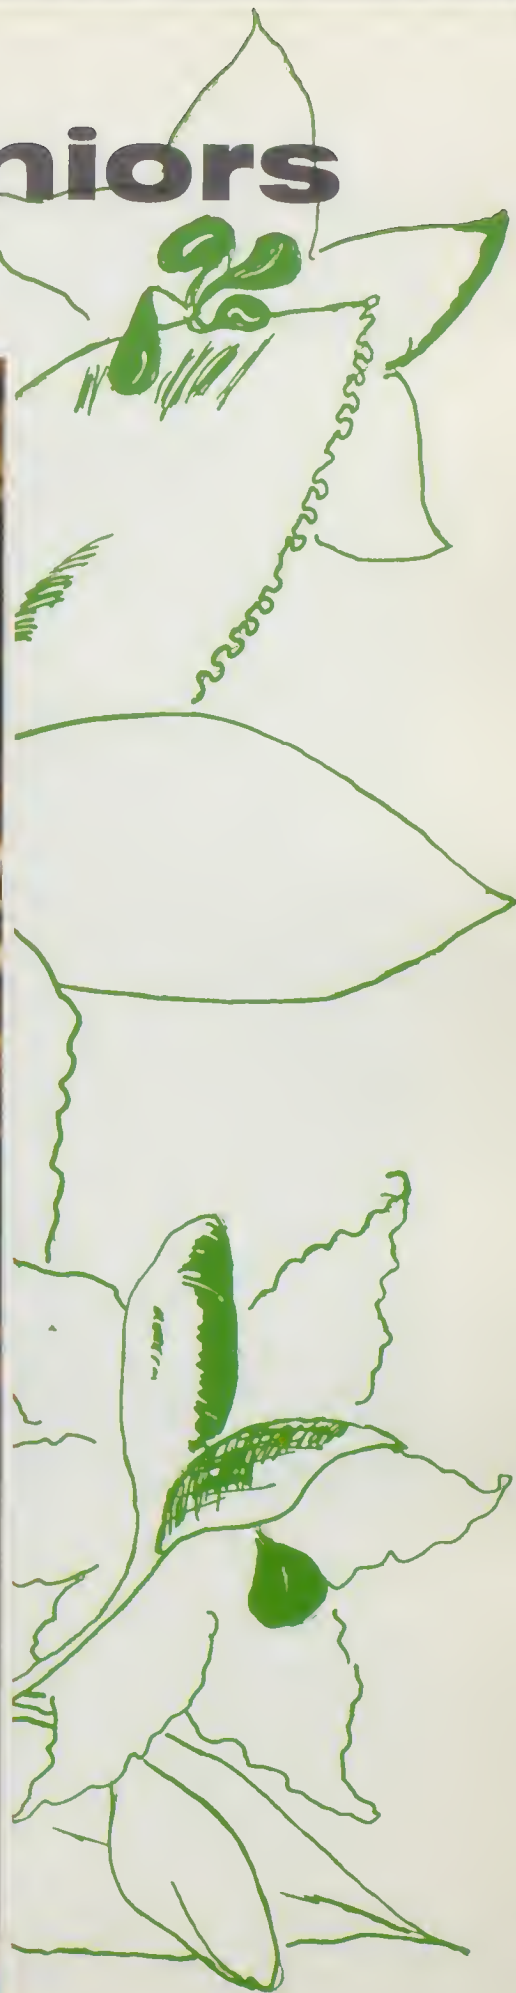

Front — Ellen Mohney, Clara Ninemire, Grace Little. Last — Esther Davis, Beatrice Masters, Willona Martin, Thelma Heaton.

senior class council

The senior class council was composed of one representative from each of the senior homerooms. This council, along with the senior officers, directed the senior class activities.

Would the seniors be graduated at the Coliseum or at Shadle? Some seniors are pictured casting ballots to decide the place of graduation. (The Coliseum won.)

spring semester

The many activities of the senior class during the spring semester were planned by these council members: Front — Roger Buck, Sandy McCaskey, Judi Sills, Karen Rosenkranz. Second — Vaughn Overlie, Larry Parton, Ellen Waldo, Louise Lankford. Third — Madelyn Abitz, Toni Merrick, Rita Risteau. Back — Jackie Hime, Bob Egger, Joan Hemphill.

spring represen- tatives

The senior breakfast was enjoyed by all who attended it. Among those present were Bobbie Bissett, Jean Marr, Kathy Browne, Bev Bullard, Jeannie Ellis, Janice Franz, Marilyn Towne.

class of '60 date dance

Several couples trip the light fantastic during the "Chance of a Leapttime" date dance sponsored by the senior class on February 26.

Before festivities began, balloon-hangers Julie Keizer, Sue Eddy, Lavonne Haas and Marilyn Towne toiled as members of the decorations committee to beautify the cafeteria.

"Salmagundi," a word when translated means "mess," meant loads of fun and lots of laughter as Shadle's first seniors sprang their Senior convocation on the rest of the school and their parents. Ken (Willie) Wilhelm and Lynne Whiteley were co-directors of the three-act program, which included every graduating senior.

Acts ranged from a western scene and bar fight to a Gay '90 setting and a carnival. A style show, narrated by Lynne, gave sneak previews of coming fashions. Models, in the shapes of real Shadle Park boys, showed off everything from two-piece bathing suits to evening gowns and bridal gowns. Many in-between acts drew snickers and occasional howls.

The convocation was climaxed by the singing of Shadle's Alma Mater by the entire class.

Some highlights of the first senior show were (1) Larry (Old Woman) Thompson beating Larry Sherling in the State scene; (2) Jeff (The Bride) Brown modeling his outfit; (3) Wayne (The Gardner) Bro trying to figure out what makes the tree he carries grow; (4) Mike Lehan, Patty Petty, Ned Neltner and Shannon Gee, in the Charleston, dancing their way through their routine, and (5) Terry (The Jet Pilot) Freeman and Bob (The Marine) Williams racing across the stage in their kiddie-car race.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have eternal life.—JOHN 3:16

in memoriam

We commit to Thy fatherly care him who has been crushed by the chaos of the world without and frightened by the torture of mind and nerve within. Surely Thou, who understandeth all, wilt receive Thy wandering children home.

Creating interest in high school activities and promoting general school welfare are the objectives of the Associated Student body.

Highlighting the fall ASB's activities was the third "Highlander Week," kicking off the big term. Various date dances and mixers also came under ASB sponsorship, including the "Starlight Serenade," the all-school Christmas date dance.

With the help of Shadle's Girls' League and Boys' Federation, the ASB backed a needy-family fund. Under this program, the students collected food and clothing and delivered the needed supplies to deserving families.

Class of '61 officers were: Front — Carol Pagnotta, secretary; John Rhoad, first vice-president, and Patty Robbins, fifth executive. Back — Gordon Best, treasurer; Bob Robideaux, second vice-president, and Mike Alley, president.

Planning and preparing for Shadle's second Junior Prom was the leading topic on the Class of '61's agenda this year. Headed by Mike Alley, president, the juniors spent many hours planning and then working in the school cafeteria on the decorations for the big prom. A sea theme was chosen, and authentic props, including a real boat and yards of fish net, were used to set the dance mood. Also a huge ocean of water was made of tissue paper. Ralph Dickenson and his orchestra provided the music for the semi-formal event.

The highlight of each of the last two years in the Science club has been the annual visit to the Science and Engineering open house at WSU. As a result of this and other similar field trips the group has obtained first-hand contact with such diverse applications of science as nuclear reactors, ore refining and production of alloys, and Nike installations. Student presentations have included such topics as radiology and digital computers.

Dennis McMacken and Doug Mascher look on while Don Pirie performs an experiment.

Spring officers of the Spanish club were Elaine Ray, president; Joan Cheshire, fifth executive; Peggy MacGown, news representative; Clarice Coulston, secretary, and Eddie Jones, vice-president.

"Saber es Poder," which means "knowledge is power," was the name given to the Spanish club. Activities included an open house in September, at which 15 new members were initiated. Also a guest speaker, Sergeant Hyder, spoke on his visit in Spain.

During the second semester, Mr. James McBride was adviser for the club.

During a city-wide Pan-American day program, the club adapted "Little Red Riding Hood" (La Capercita Roja) to Spanish. The cast included Bud Droke, Elaine Ray, Peggy MacGown and Jeannine Roos.

Pat Torney, Jackie Schuster and Sue Heyer are served refreshments by Jean Marr and Marcia Williams at a Latin club open house.

This year was a busy one for the Latin club. Its many activities included the purchase of 10 maps for the Latin rooms, joining the World Tape Pals which exchange tapes with other Latin clubs and schools in foreign countries, and the showing of the movie "Demetrius and the Gladiators" to the school. Members also held an open house and took in 32 new members.

The Future Nurses of America club had quite an action-packed year. They took several tours including one to St. Anne's home, Lakeland Village and Saint Luke's hospital. Some of their other activities were a course in Red Cross Life Saving, a booth in the ASB carnival, and taking turns at working in the nurse's office. One of the high-lights of the year was their installation of officers when those who had earned their pins received them.

Spring officers of the Future Nurses of America were, seated: Penny Opsal, presi-dent; Ron Tyvan, treasurer; Sally LaRose, vice-president. Standing: Alice Congdon, secretary; Judy Perry, attendance clerk; Linda Sinnott, fifth executive. Sharon Green, corresponding secretary, is not shown.

One of the projects of the FNA was a Christmas party. Shown decorating the cake are Linda Hinton, Sharon Green, Penny Opsal, Sandy Plummer and Karen Bremner.

Mr. Joseph Heslin is being hauled in by two deputy sheriffs, Marilyn Towne and Bobbie Bissett, to the Dileas Chailin jail during the carnival.

One of the many tasks of Dileas Chailin was the complete revision of their constitution. The senior girls and their mothers were honored at a tea given by the underclass girls and at Easter, Dileas provided a family with Easter baskets and an Easter dinner. A skit for a pep convocation also was worked out and carried through by the girls.

Spring officers of the Clansmen were Dan Clark, treasurer; Steve Bell, president, and Bob Nelson, vice-president.

The Clansmen became quite well-known this year at Shadle. Selling candy at the carnival and candy bars at lunch were their big money-making projects. The money was to be spent for a movie projector for studying plays of games. The lettermen were also auctioned off as slaves on Slave day. A date picnic and a senior stag finished off an active year.

Football team trainer Bernie Harris — tabbed “Doc” by his charges — is photographed in the dressing room’s dim light doing a typical tape-up job on varsity guard Jim Paton.

Varsity football managers have many chores ranging from keeping the uniforms clean and taping arms and legs to running errands for the coaches. There were four managers in 1959, including Bernie Harris (seated) and Clarence Buttolph, Arlee Peterson and John Bishop.

Shadle's outstanding junior quarterback, Tom Conlon (21), is brought down by a Lewis and Clark Tiger during the Clan's 18-12 triumph over the South Siders. Closing in on Conlon are Tigers Emile Lefavbre (81) and Dick McBroom (76), while Shadle end Dave Hertrich (80) is at extreme right.

Jack Wichterman (44) tackles unidentified Whitworth quarterback during practice game against the college's Jayvee team. Shadleites coming up to help Jack are Pat Milne (65), Roland Chase (78), Rich Rawlins (51) and Don Burrows (64). Shadle scored unofficial upset by finishing up on the long end of an 8-6 tally.

All-City fullback Lynn Lupfer's head may be seen (arrow) as he crashes over the goal line for Shadle's first touchdown in varsity competition. He scored against North Central in the second quarter of the annual Merry-Go-Round football game in Spokane's Memorial stadium. Other Shadleites in the photo are Bruce Werner (24), Ron Bogue (55), Clark Claymon (77) and Rich Wharf (42). NC players include John Goeller (55), Bill Payne (75) and Marv Henthorn (44).

Surprises galore — that pretty much summed up Shadle's first year of varsity competition in Spokane's City league.

As usual, intracity competition opened with the annual Merry-Go-Round game in Memorial stadium — and the Highlanders learned right away that winning in the City loop isn't easy. Shadle finished last in the M-G-R, but bounced back in regular season play to post a 3-3 record, good enough for a fourth-place finish in the seven-team league.

In its first regular game, Shadle mystified the experts by running up an 18-0 halftime lead on defending champion Lewis and Clark and then holding off the resurging Tigers for an 18-12 victory. Junior quarterback Tom Conlon was the star for Shadle as he passed for two touchdowns and ripped off three long gains on "bootleg" plays.

Again Shadle struck hard in the first half as the Highlanders stopped West Valley, 20-13 in their next outing. But John Rogers' Pirates snapped Shadle's win streak at two straight the next week by shutting out the Highlanders, 21-0, on a bitterly cold, windy night in the stadium.

Coach Jack Peterson's crew had been blanked in two junior varsity games with Central Valley, but Shadle rolled up a 26-12 triumph over the Bears on the valley field.

Then hopes for the title went a-glimmering as Gonzaga Prep grabbed a narrow, 21-19 victory over Shadle. And in their league finale, the Highlanders lost another 21-0 decision — this time to North Central, as the Indians finished their loop season undefeated and untied.

The last time Shadle's 21 seniors donned Highlander cleats was at Pullman where — in 13-degree weather with a steady wind blowing — the Clan pulled out a 27-20 victory and ruined the Greyhound's perfect season. Fullback Lynn Lupfer intercepted a Pullman lateral late in the game and raced 66 yards for the winning touchdown.

Lupfer, a 195-pound senior transfer from Lubbock, Texas, later was named to the Spokesman-Review's All-City first team, and also the Spokane Daily Chronicle's All-City second team. Other All-City second team berths went to senior tackle Clark Claymon, junior end Barry Livengood, who tied the league record for touchdown passes caught, and junior guard Jim Paton.

A hard-fighting Shadle Park B football squad finished its season with a 4-2 record in league play, good enough for a tie for second place with Lewis and Clark, behind undefeated John Rogers. Head Coach Joe Heslin said, "We did better this year than we'd expected. Both Line Coach Bill Via and I were proud of the way the boys hustled and worked hard all the time."

Shadle's freshman football team lost all four of its league games, an outcome due partly to the fact that only 26 boys from the smallest freshman class in the city turned out. Next year most of the team members will move up to the B squad.

Coach Jim Berry watches his cross-country teams run to victory.

From obscurity to what equals a state championship, and in just three years — that's the boast Coach Jim Berry could make about Shadle Park's varsity cross-country team.

When Shadle was opened in 1957, no one dreamed that in three short seasons the new school could have a group of athletes who would run their way to fame and titles. But that's exactly what the boys with the sturdy legs and large lungs did.

During the first fall season the Highlanders did not compete in varsity competition, since all of Berry's harriers were only sophomores. The boys did run against several B teams, though, and were eager students of the commonly overlooked sport.

Last year Shadle entered City league varsity action with an all-junior squad, and finished fifth in the tough circuit. The team still didn't have enough know-how and experience to notch many wins against the opposition, who all boasted senior runners.

The varsity wasn't the only group wearing Green and Gold cross-country uniforms. There was also a B and a freshman squad, who were preparing for the "big" year — 1960.

Finally reaching its prime, the varsity won all five of its league meets, and took the tough All-City meet, the AAU meet, broke a 10-year Lewis and Clark and North Central hold on the title, and brought home the University of Washington All-State invitational meet winner's trophy from Seattle.

Five runners had especially familiar faces to Berry, for they have been running for Shadle for three years. They are Jim Coolbaugh, Don Barth, twins Dwayne and Dwight Severn and Ken Morton.

Other members of the varsity squad were brothers Don and Dave Morton and Ron Tyvan.

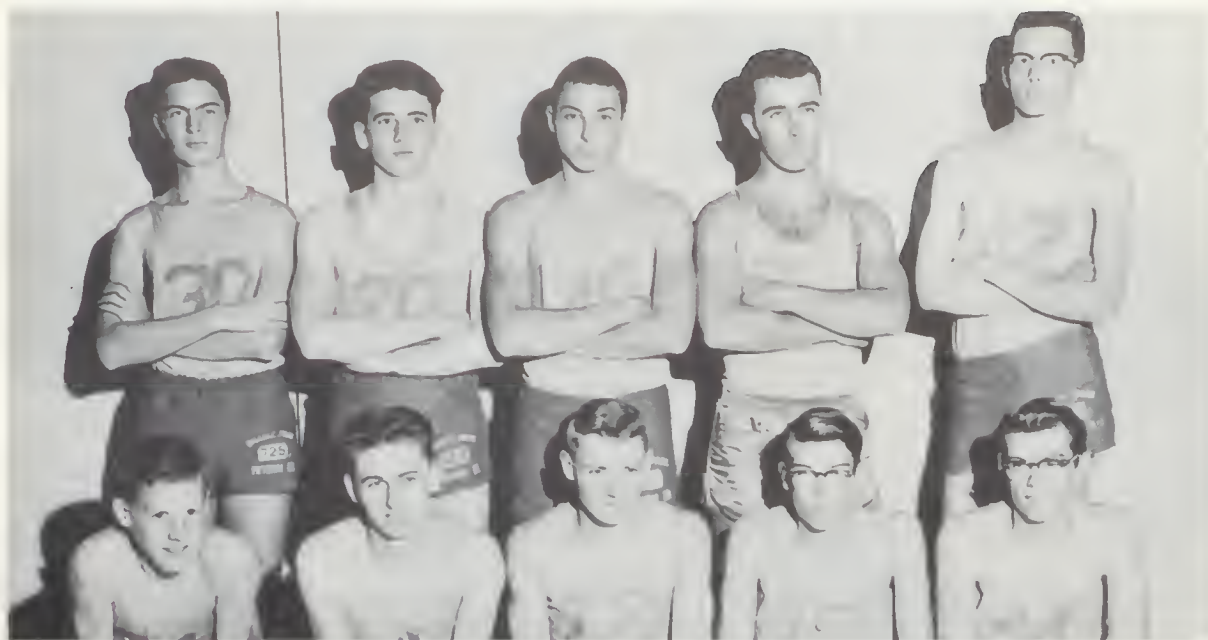

Over the finish line goes Ken Morton, varsity cross-country runner.

An All-City championship was the pride of this year's junior varsity cross-country squad, coached by James Berry. The 10 runners competed in the B-squad City league last fall and beat all competition to take the league crown.

With too thin a field, the freshman cross-country team didn't have the power to win any meets and finished last in the league. Mr. Berry, also frosh coach, said the team was out primarily to gain experience for the junior varsity and varsity teams in the future.

season's

Looking back on the last three basketball years, Shadles graduating seniors who played for Coach Paul Henley as the first Highlanders will remember one thing in years to come — "We went to State!"

Seniors Jerry Russell, Steve Bell, Dave Knostman, Jim Brinkman, Denny Turnbull, Bill Hoblin and Rich Wharf will remember playing together on a basketball court for the first time as sophomores, being members of Shadle's first entry in the fast and furious City league as juniors, and of journeying to Seattle and the Hec Edmundson Pavilion for the State AA tournament as seniors.

The varsity's junior members, Barry Livengood, John McFarland, Ron Bogue, Vic Johnson and Tom Conlon, and sophomores Bob Stephan and Howard Yarbrough, have next year, and the season after that, to try to follow in the footsteps of the first senior hoopsters.

No one can forget those tense and heart-stopping games leading up the road to State. No one will forget that one-point win over Gonzaga Prep. The game was wedged between sessions of the State B tournament in the Coliseum. And, like the regular City loop games, Shadle's student body was well-represented by the Girls' Pep club and Hi-Lassies.

All the pressure of sudden comebacks by Shadle and Gonzaga to earn playoff spots was imminent. This was THE game. This was do or die for both squads. The final score was 49-48, for Shadle, with the Clan thus earning the right to another playoff game with the Walla Walla Blue Devils.

A large group of frenzied Highlanders accompanied their team to Walla Walla where the Scots clobbered the highly ranked and favored Blue Devils, 59-49. Everyone was stunned — and, naturally, Coach Henley was very happy. It was like a dream, a three-year myth, that had finally become real. Shadle was going to State.

Shadle went to State — accompanied by about 750 loyal rooters — and established firmly the name of the three-year-old school. In the first game, the Highlanders faced the Renton Indians, destined to become the 1960 State champions. Renton beat Shadle Park 61-37. Shadle was in the lead at halftime, 21-20, but finally fell before the fine rebounding of 6-foot-8 Clint Peebles and the 28-point shooting of Lowell Scott, the tournament's most valuable player.

Shadle met the Wapato Wolves the next morning in a losers' bracket game, and Shadle pulled through with a 62-54 win, despite a rally in the final minutes by Wapato.

On the third day, Shadle met Wilson of Tacoma. Both teams were about evenly matched, with Shadle holding a 33-31 lead with seconds to go in the game. It looked as if they would take back to Spokane either a fifth or eighth place trophy, but —. What was intended to be a good pass turned out to be disaster for the Highlanders. The ball hit the backing of the Ram net, bounced into the waiting arms of a Wilson player and was dunked for the tying points. The game then went into overtime, with Shadle losing 53-51.

What about the regular season? Shadle started out with two quick losses to Central Valley, Spokane's other representative to State, and Gonzaga. But the road to recovery and pre-season bets seemed won as the Highlanders came back with an eleven-game winning streak, including victories over North Central, West Valley, Lewis and Clark and John Rogers in league play.

Then the cycle took its turn for the worse again, and it seemed as though Shadle would have to wait till 1961 for a State tourney berth.

But again the SP squad got rolling and grabbed the necessary wins to make the playoffs.

The rest is known. But one important point has not been touched upon. In 1959, Shadle's first try in the City league, Steve Bell proved the star all season as he landed spots on the city's all-city first teams. This year the spotlight changed and focused on guard Jerry Russell, who was the consistent sparkplug of the Shadle offense. He, too, made the newspapers' first strings.

Who will it be next year? That's one of the big questions to be answered as soon as Coach Paul Henley again issues the call for Shadle basketball players and the new season gets under way.

Shadle finished second in the City league race behind tough Central Valley, and both went to the State tournament. b squad basketball

After finishing in the cellar during their freshman year, this year's B squad basketball team came to life and wound up in third place.

"This year's team showed great promise of a good future varsity basketball squad. The boys worked hard and had the desire to become a winning team," was the comment of B squad Coach Jack Peterson.

Bob Stephan, Howard Yarbrough and Bill Moultrie led the team, scoring 611 points between the three of them.

Others who saw considerable action were Jon Berstad, Dan Vanderpool, Bob McCray, Howard Cannon, Steve Heaps, Don Russell, Joe Hoogstad, Mike Rachford and Jim Atwood.

Front — Dwight Brett, Joe McCann, Don Russell, Jim Atwood, Steve Heaps and Jon Barstad. Back — Mike Rachford, Howard Yarbrough, Bob Stephan, Ed Bennett, Bob McCray and Dan Vanderpool.

Although Shadle's freshman basketball team only won one game, it was a big one. They knocked off Lewis and Clark, the league champ. Coached by Wayne Conner, the youngest Shadle team totaled 22 boys.

Ron Bickerstaff was high-point man for the squad with an eight-point average.

Considering Shadle's wrestling squad was grappling its way through its first year in City league competition, the team did well. Coached by Lyle Pugh, they beat North Central, John Rogers and Central Valley. Third place in the league, which includes the Spokane high schools and Cheney and Mead, was Shadle's prize.

Sam Juda, heaviest man on Shadle's team, takes down an Eastmont foe.

District matches were held at Cheney with all league members in competition. Two Highlander wrestlers qualified in the district meet for the state tournament held in Pullman. Bob Behrens, in the 191-pound class, and Sam Juda, an unlimited class grappler, took to the mats in the state classic. Behrens went undefeated throughout the season, the only Shadle wrestler to do so.

Coach Lyle Pugh and assistant Bill Via directed Shadle's wrestling program. Shadle became the first Spokane high school to compete in this sport when first turnouts were held in 1958.

Varsity Wrestling: Front — Sterling Polello, Ron Brown, Bob Sonntag, Raleigh Morris, Bill Anders, Jack McBride, Terry Diffendorfer. tumbling

Cliff Myers, Bill Pardun, Mike Russian, Don Davies, Gary Scott, John Gormley and Tim Neale, Shadle's trampoline-tumbling team, made use of Shadle's gymnastics room, with the full-size trampoline and other equipment. Coached by Lyle Pugh, the boys were taught to perform various maneuvers on the "tramp" and tumbling feats on the long horse, a padded box. Another part of gymnastics, free exercise, constituted working on a wood floor. The boys had to put together a one and one-half to two-minute routine, with balancing, tumbling, agility, flexibility and strength displayed.

One of the top men for the Highlanders was Bill Pardun, who won several medals in AAU competition. He took first in the district AAU tumbling, second in free exercise, third in trampoline and fourth in long horse. In the state tournament Bill was third and fifth in tumbling, seventh in free exercise and eighth and ninth on the trampoline.

Co-ed tumbling is also part of the gymnastics program at Shadle.

Shadle's varsity tennis team finished second this spring in a six-team City league. The squad downed all teams but John Rogers — and in that one the Highlanders were whitewashed, 7-0.

The team defeated North Central, 5-2; West Valley, 4-3; Gonzaga Prep, 6-1, and Lewis and Clark, 4-3.

Mr. Justin Comeaux was coach.

With a record of 7-0-1, Shadle's varsity golf team downed most of their City league opponents by wide margins. In their final match of the year, the Clan tied Lewis and Clark, 9-9, to win Shadle's first golf championship. In the All-City matches, SP finished behind winner LC, but a week later the Highlanders captured the Inland Empire golf trophy. Since most of the varsity team are juniors, Shadle should be as strong next season. The top four players, Tom Conlon, John Rhoad, Rick Jensen and Gordy Aden, will all return next year. Aden is a sophomore. Seniors Bill Church and Bill Reeves are the only two from the squad not to return.

Shadle high hurdlers Dave Hertrich, Major Walker and Dwight Severn proved to be a strong crew as they lost only to Lewis and Clark in six city dual meets. Hertrich placed third in the All-City meet at Hart field.

Gene Rouse, Paul Eldenburg and Rich Bohner were the 100-yard dash men this year. These sprint men accumulated many points in dual competition.

Regular 220-yard sprint men were Gene Rouse, Paul Eldenburg and Bob Ott, with Rich Bohner filling in when needed. This part of the team placed consistently in dual meets. Coach Berry strategically placed Jim Bousquet in the All-City 220 and Jim placed fourth. Rouse finished third in that same race, which qualified him for the Tri-District meet in which he finished fifth.

Buck Aden, Dave Hertrich and Major Walker were Shadle's main threats in the "lows."

The Highlander track squad had five runners of the mile, and of these, three were brothers Don, Ken and Dave Morton. Pictured at the left are the three top milers: Ron Tyvan, Don Morton and Kelly Brown. Don placed sixth in the city.

440-yard run

The 440-yard team was strong throughout the season with Hughes

Protzman leading the way.

Shadle lacked depth in this event until the middle of the season, when Coach James Berry switched Bob Ott from the 220 for extra strength. Protzman was later to become mile relay anchor man.

880-yard run

Don Barth and Dwayne Severn were the Highlander 880-yard men this year, and they placed in every dual meet. On occasion Don Morton, regular, miler, also ran the half.

mile relay

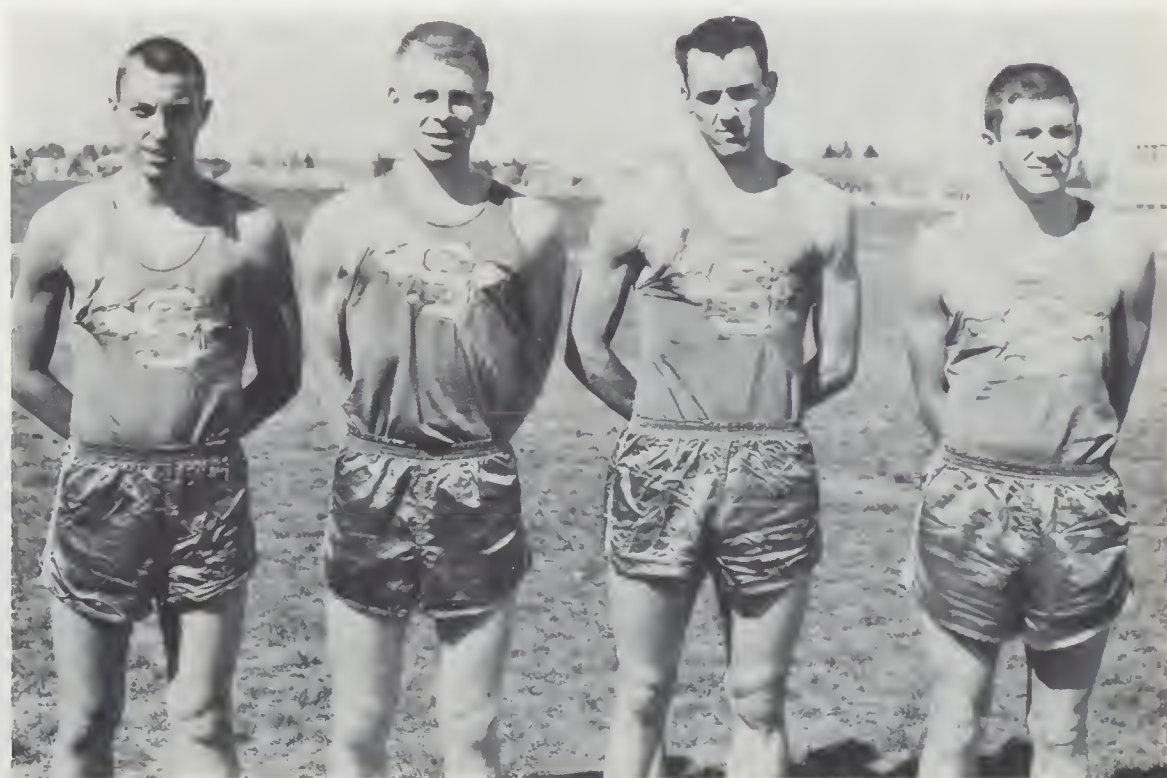

A new event in the state track program this year was the mile relay. During most of the season Shadle's team of Gary Simonson, Ken Clawson, Jim Coolbaugh and Hal Lotzenhiser lost only to Rogers in dual meets. Coach Berry moved Hughes Protzman from the 440 to anchor man on the team for added strength at the end of the season. This proved a wise move as the team placed second in the All-City and Tri-District meets. The team then placed sixth in the State competition at Pullman.

Up and over was the slogan of three Shadle Park tracksters all season. They were Jerry Russell, Rick Leifer and Cliff Myers, pole vaulters for Coach Jim Berry. Jerry, a senior, was top man in this field, winning five out of six dual meets and finishing fourth in the All-City. His highest mark was 12 feet. Myers, also a senior, finished no lower than third in dual meets and Leifer, only a sophomore, continually gets higher and is the top prospect for Berry next year in the vault.

The high jump meant Jim Bousquet this year for Shadle. Jim cleared 6-2 to topple a 20-year league record, and went undefeated in all his dual meets. He also finished first in the Moses Lake relays, and the All-City and the Tri-District meets. Jim also competed in the State meet.

Led by Bousquet, the Highlander high jumpers were the strongest in the league. Five squad members cleared 5-7 or better during the 1960 season. They were John Byrne, Hughes Protzman, Jerry Russell, Ron Stevens and Bousquet.

High individual point winner for Shadle's varsity team, Bousquet was Shadle's exceptional broad jumper. John Byrne, Gene Rouse and Rick Bohner also earned many meet points.

Bousquet placed first in the All-City and Tri-District meets and seventh in the State meet in Pullman.

junior varsity track

An even win-loss record, 3-3, was brought home by the Shadle junior varsity track squad this year after competing against B units from the other City league high schools. Shadle also placed second in the All-City, with Jerry Holmes leading the way with a first place in the 100-yard dash and the 220. He was also followed by Rick Bohner, with a second in the 220 and third in the 100.

Because of a small freshman class at Shadle this year, an insufficient turnout resulted in no meets for Coach Ray Mohnney's squad. Only four boys turned out, but they gained some experience in practice.

season's

Shadle's baseball Highlanders stayed in contention for the City league title throughout most of the season, but faltered in their last two games to finish third in the seven-team league.

The squad defeated Lewis and Clark and North Central twice each; divided two contests each with Gonzaga, with Central Valley and with West Valley; and won one game and tied another against John Rogers to finish with an 8-3-1 mark.

Senior shortstop Rich Wharf was the city's 1960 hitting star as he won the batting crown with a .486 average. Juniors Kenny Brown and Barry Livengood also were among the hitting leaders.

Steve Bell again pitched well for Shadle as his left-handed slants earned him six victories against two losses, and an excellent earned run average of 1.47, third in the city.

Other seniors who closed out their careers included catcher Clark Claymon, infielder Terry Weller and outfielders Jeff Brown and Arlee Peterson.

summary

Shadle is expected to be strong again in 1961, as lettermen Livengood, Ken Brown, Ron Bogue, Tom Hoagland, Bill Burns and Mike Montgomery return for another year of diamond warring.

The Highlanders headed into their last two league games with a 7-2 record, but blew a chance to tie with Gonzaga Prep for the title when they lost a heart-breaking 1-0 decision to West Valley late in May.

Then on graduation day, June 2, Shadle's hopes of tying West Valley for the runnerup spot went a-glimmering when they finished seven innings of play against John Rogers in a 7-7 deadlock and the game was called to allow senior players enough time to get ready to receive their diplomas at the Coliseum.

The B squad baseball team finished the season with a 15-9 record for both league and practice games.

Coach Joe Heslin's comment on the team was, "We had a good club; in fact, a better team than our record showed. We lost several ball games by one run, and if we'd won a few of them we might have finished closer to the league title."

Shadle finished fourth in the league with a 9-5 record.

freshman baseball

Shadle's freshman baseball team ended the year of league play in fourth place with a 4-6 record.

"Although this year's freshman class was weak in most sports, our group showed the ability and hustle to become a good baseball team," said Coach Bill Via.

Top prospects for next year's B squad are Steve Alfano, Bill Tyvan and Ron McCartney.

Organized in the summer of 1957 — before Shadle even had opened — the Associated Student Body has given important aid in student government. A set of temporary officers was in command during Shadle's first year; finally regular officers were elected for the first time in the spring of 1958.

Shadle's first temporary officers included, seated, Sharol Ogle and Bev Jamison, and, standing, Kirsten Corskie, Jim Coolbaugh and Marlene Jacobson.

The ASB has had the duty of chartering school clubs, and by the spring of 1960 had granted charters to 31 school organizations. The ASB also founded and controls "Highlander Week" each autumn, and started the "Youth Canteen," a social get-together during mid-week which provides opportunities for dancing and meeting other students.

Guided by Mr. Harry Finnegan, Shadle's dean of boys, the ASB passes on all expenditures made from student body funds and approves or rejects many proposals affecting Shadle students.

Sharol Ogle and Ken Wilhelm were named "friendliest boy and girl" at Shadle as the school's first Highlander Week came to a close with a "Highland Fling" dance in the fall of 1958.

Myron Floren, star accordionist with the Lawrence Welk orchestra, was guest soloist at Shadle's 1958 spring concert. Here, Shadle's orchestra accompanies him under the direction of Mr. John Harris.

Buddy DeFranco, noted clarinetist, was the spring concert guest soloist in 1959. Here he's giving instructions into the microphone. Mr. Harris is in background.

The Kingston trio was in town late in 1959, and press clubbers turned out again for an interview. The smiling, dark-haired youth in the white jacket is Shadle's Alan Kaufman.

Shadle's mixed choir — 55 strong — assembled for this photograph in 1958. Director Mr. Melvin Kornineyer is in suit at extreme left.

Michele (Mike) McLellan was elected to reign as Shadle's first "Lassic of the Highland Fling." Here, she's accepting her trophy from Mr. William W. Taylor, Shadle principal.

These Talent club dancers participated in the first Talent club convocation in 1958. From front to rear are Karen Trent, Yvonne Stokke, Carol Fry, Joan Greenwood and Becky Gaines.

Shadle's teachers put on a skit during a pep convocation one day in 1958. Mr. Jack Peterson and Mr. Don Cobb get instructions on how to fly a plane from Mr. George Ross (with stick) as Mr. Paul Henlev, Mr. Hal Jones, Mr. Leonard Richardson, Mr. Keith Rostvold and Mr. Howard McNew look on.

miscellaneous

Shadle's first marching unit was assembled in 1957, and included 33 girls. Unit since has been expanded to a membership of 98.

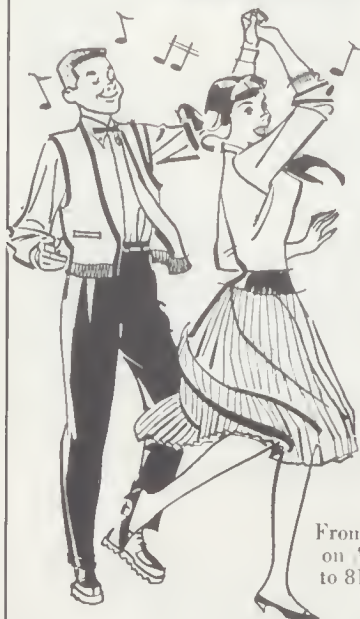

Baseball in the spring of 1958 was plagued by bad weather. Here Bob Ritchey, Rich Wharf, Cliff Myers and Steve Bell talk together after a game at Audubon park was canceled because the skies were dripping.

Mr. John P. Rodkey served as Shadle's vice-principal during the school's first two years of existence, then moved on to take over the duties of principal at North Central.

Congratulations to the Seniors!

Reddy Kilowatt says:

Congratulations, graduate! You have already come a long way.

Whether you are planning to continue your education or to enter the business world now, your opportunities are limited only by the amount of effort you are willing to put out.

Your friends in the Washington Water Power and other business-managed organizations are on your side, and sincere in their desire to help you if they can.

Congratulations, Graduates . . .

Let this be a first step, a graduation to the life of opportunities ahead. Move onward and upward using the knowledge and experience you have gained. Put the confidence in what you have already achieved to work for, you in gaining still greater knowledge, experience and achievement.
